PUBLIC VS PRIVATE

The uncomfortable and even confrontational decision some families face when determining what's best.

TOP UNDERCLASSMEN

The greater Frederick County basketball scene is primed with up and coming talent ready to explode next year. Several teams were led by Juniors and Sophomores who displayed willingness and athleticism to play at a high level throughout the varsity season. We compiled a list of twenty underclassmen who had great winter seasons and we all should keep an eye out on.

To stay public or go private? That's is the question. The answer is quite simple and truthfully there is no correct path to follow. The answer is; do what's best for you! There is no question private school academic settings often offer advantages that public school cannot and depending on what basketball conference the private school is in can be beneficial as well. However, that does not make private schools the run away favorite. Public schools offer many benefits academically and athletically that have proven to provide athletes with opportunities to continue their athletics at the collegiate level.

Most notably Frederick County athlete and national top 50 recruit class of 2022 Noah Batchelor and his family decided that going to private school at Glenelg Country School was best for him. You also have other notable Frederick County athletes such as Obi Noel graduate of Tuscarora High School and Zach Thomas graduate of Oakdale High School. Much like Noah Batchelor both Obi and Zach had clear and obvious talent to play at the private school level but decided staying in public was best for them and much like Noah future projection Obi and Zach play(ed) at the Division I Collegiate level.

STYLED BY WHIT | QUARANTINE FASHION TIPS

Get up every morning and get yourself ready like you're going to work or anywhere in public! Don't become lazy with your wardrobe just because you're WFH or have nothing to do.

Glam up & have an at home photoshoot with your family or whoever you're quarantined with using your phone!

Go through your closet and create outfits! Put some outfits together to have ready for your first outing when things are back to "normal". This would also be a great time to take anything out of your closet that no longer serves you purpose or sparks joy for you.
